Please read the following questions; then select and phone only three of the referees given. One should preferably be the main employer and one the youth organisation representative if given. Ensure the referees know the host parents well and also ask whether they have visited them in their own home and know how they treat their own family. At the completion of the phone call answer the following questions. Ask similar of the other family members' referees.

1. Did the referee enthusiastically recommend the candidate as a conscientious employee/volunteer? _____
2. Was the candidate suitable with reservations? _____
3. Were they good in some areas but poor in others? _____
4. Were there problems with the candidate's approach? _____
5. How did the candidate perform in a stressful situation? _____
6. Were there problems with the candidate's attitude particularly to those of the opposite sex? _____
7. Did the candidate have problems in working with fellow employees and or young people they were guiding? _____
8. Was there an incident or incidents that caused problems? _____
9. Were the employee/volunteer's services terminated for unacceptable behaviour? _____

Fill in the appropriate left three columns of answers on the next sheet. If the results are in any way inconclusive phone all of the other referees and fill in the three columns to the right. Make a final overall judgement on the family as a whole based on these results and the interview results.

Ensure document confidentiality -- Keep all YESP 2 forms for five years after the student's exchange year. Should a host family continue to be involved for a second or more consecutive year(s) their forms should be maintained for five years after the final year of their involvement or until they allow their Police Checks to expire. Forms should then be destroyed.
