Please read the following questions; then select and phone only three of the referees given. One should preferably be the main employer and one the youth organisation representative if given. Ensure the referees know the candidate(s) well and also ask whether they have visited them in their own home and know how they treat their own family. At the completion of the phone call answer the following questions.

1. Did the referee enthusiastically recommend the candidate as a conscientious employee/volunteer? _____
2. Was the candidate suitable with reservations? _____
3. Were they good at organising and handling other people? _____
4. Were there problems with the candidate's approach? _____
5. How did the candidate perform in a stressful situation? _____
6. Were there problems with the candidate's attitude particularly to those of the opposite sex? _____
7. Did the candidate have problems in working with fellow employees and or young people they were guiding? _____
8. Was there an incident or incidents that caused problems? _____
9. Were the employee/volunteer's services terminated for unacceptable behaviour? _____

Fill in the appropriate left three columns of answers on the next sheet. If the results are in any way inconclusive, phone all of the other referees and fill in the three columns to the right. Make a final overall judgement on the candidate based on these results and the interview results.

Ensure document confidentiality -- Keep all YESP DI 4 forms for five years after the final year of the committee member's involvement on the Youth Exchange Committee. Should a District Committee member continue to be involved for a second or more consecutive year(s) their forms should be maintained for five years after the final year of their involvement or until they allow their Police Checks to expire. Forms should then be destroyed.
